

The Metuchen-Edison Historical Society is proud to offer the following workshop

“Researching the History of Your House”
Sunday, May 7, 2006, at 2:00 p.m.
St. Luke's Church Community Room, Metuchen

Featuring Keynote Speakers

Janet Foster, Assistant Director of Columbia University's Historic Preservation Program and Author of *Building by the Book: Pattern Book Architecture in New Jersey

Ann Sardone, Title Searcher and Local Expert on conducting deed research in Middlesex County.

This workshop will focus on using the wealth of local history information in the Metuchen-Edison Historical Society's Grimstead Archives to develop the background history of a building. Along with an introduction to the Society's collection of historic maps, photographs, and directories, participants will also learn about architectural styles and the various aspects of property research, such as conducting deed searches.

Registration is $5 for Metuchen-Edison Historical Society Members, and $10 for all non-members. This fee will cover workshop materials and reception to follow. Please register early to reserve your spot. Contact Tyreen Reuter at 732-906-5664 or via email at ayersallenhouse@msn.com with any questions.
